The presentation shall demonstrate a number of physiotherapy and speech therapy processes that are currently being employed within Europe. Also to be presented throughout the address is the information and response that the study has attained and more specifically the impact that the techniques have had on Parkinson's disease.

Note: All information and discussion shall be based on information and research conducted within each European country stated.